CLEVELAND, OH – The Academy of Cleveland Ballet, the official school of Cleveland Ballet, has announced their 2025 summer camps and programs. With curriculum designed to elevate the skills and knowledge of students of all ages and levels, the summer programs provide world-class training led by faculty comprised of Cleveland Ballet’s professional artists.

With a flexible four-week format, students and families can select the weeks that work with their schedules and availability. Week one runs July 7-11, week two runs July 14-18, week three runs July 28-August 1, and the fourth and final week is August 4-8.

Each level offers age and ability-appropriate curriculum, including classes such as ballet technique, pre-pointe, pointe, contemporary, and jazz. Students will also enjoy extracurricular classes ranging from arts and crafts, stretching, creative movement to Pilates, acting, injury prevention, and conditioning.

Additionally, Academy of Cleveland Ballet’s adult ballet program will run throughout the summer for drop-in classes. These Monday and Friday evening classes welcome adults aged 18 and above, whether they are beginners looking to explore ballet for the first time or experienced dancers seeking to refine their technique in a fun and supportive environment.
